Welcome

A huge welcome to one and all to our 61st National Jazz Festival

The Tauranga Jazz Society are proud to present the National Jazz Festival and National Youth Jazz Competition over Easter 2024 once again.

We are celebrating Aotearoa New Zealand's top jazz and soul talent with concerts for every taste!

We are so pleased to bring back acclaimed international multi-instrumentalist James Morrison as our headline performer. He amazed the audience at his last appearance here and we can't wait to hear him perform again with his quartet. Aotearoa soul star Louis Baker is presenting a stunning show, plus we have New York guitarist Russ Spiegel performing. We hope you enjoy the depth and variety of concerts on offer.

We welcome the many hundreds of students who perform in the National Youth Jazz Competition, along with all the musicians, locals and visitors who attend the events.

Many thanks to our principal funders, Port of Tauranga, TECT and the Tauranga City Council and all of our other sponsors for their support.

Enjoy the music!

Jeff Baker

TAURANGA JAZZ SOCIETY PRESIDENT

Kia ora koutou,

What an exciting time for jazz and our city, as we proudly celebrate 61 years of the beloved National Jazz Festival. On behalf of our community, I extend a warm and enthusiastic welcome to all jazz loving visitors, returning and new, to one of Tauranga's most cherished home-grown traditions.

The 2024 National Jazz Festival will be gracing our city over the Easter weekend. We are looking forward to returning favourites like the Jazz Village at The Historic Village, where the spirit of the New Orleans French Quarter comes alive through music and street dancing; and the Downtown Carnival's indoor and outdoor entertainment, creating a vibrant festive atmosphere in Tauranga's city centre.

This festival truly has something for everyone! It not only showcases Aotearoa's finest jazz musicians in venues across the city, but also nurtures emerging talents through the National Youth Jazz Competition. Nearly 600 young musicians from across Aotearoa will compete at Baycourt, a great way to see and support our future jazz stars.

Tauranga City Council is immensely proud to support this remarkable event. While you're here, we encourage you to enjoy the wonderful experiences, beautiful beaches, and great local cuisine that make Tauranga a fantastic destination.

Blue Eyes – The Music of Frank Sinatra

A cabaret with a story

New Zealand playwright, April Phillips has created a touching storyline into which she has woven many of Frank Sinatra's songs.

Frances visits the family home and finds fan letters written by her late mother to Frank Sinatra. As Frances reads the letters she learns that her mother was a singer in a band with Jimmy and Andy before she was married.

What happened to those dreams...

Cast: Michelle Coombe, Sarah Julou, Sam Howe, Luca Robinson

Musicians: Barbara Caygill, Jeff Baker, Kimberly Jones, and James Upjohn

Wright Family Foundation 46th NATIONAL youth JAZZ COMPETITION

All Girl Big Band: Powerhouse of Sound

BAYCOURT CONCERT SERIES

“An unequivocally chilled-out and enthusiastic masterclass in Big Band virtuosity. The relaxed, understated style of their presentation is almost deceiving – these are some seriously talented musicians with a showcase of skill.”

Review of “The Ages” show.

In a largely male dominated musical genre, 18 Christchurch women are changing the face of the big band jazz scene. This completely female, All Girl Big Band create a “powerhouse of sound” which will blow you away!

Hear the All Girl Big Band showcase some of their favourite tunes with vocalist Christchurch based/Tauranga raised, Naomi Ferguson. From swing to funk to pop and soul you will hear many tunes you know and love along with a few new ones.

Be prepared for an outstanding show of infectious joyful music making from these talented musicians.

Music Director/Lead Alto saxophone: Lana Law.
Saxophones: Jennie Gough, Rachael Travaille, Georgina Rees-Stevenson, Helen Renaud. Trumpets: Sarah Hickman, Julia Mallett, April Holland, Katie Lucas. Trombones: Charlotte Crone, Clara Dujakovic, Judith Bell, Rebecca Harris. Piano: Nanako Sato. Guitar: Snow Townsend. Bass: Wendy Phua. Drums: Cat Wall. Vocalist: Naomi Ferguson.

Jazz Café & VIP Bar

After a day at the festival, relax to a fantastic jam session at the Jazz Café & VIP Bar, in the comfort of the Hotel Armitage bar.

Featuring a local house band with surprise guest musicians this is the place to be for late night music fun!

Entry is strictly limited – book to ensure you get a seat. Experience those one-off magical musical moments... that’s jazz!

Tauranga Big Band Around the Jazz World in 80 Minutes

Tauranga Big Band proudly presents a musical journey exploring big band music linked with places around the globe through the medium of jazz. Featuring some of Tauranga’s premier musicians and outstanding local young performers.

Join us in celebrating the musical richness of Tauranga Big Band—a group that embodies the spirit, diversity, and innovation of big band jazz. Discover the music as this exceptional ensemble takes you on a journey through the musical landscape of world music.

Akash Dutta: The Trio Sessions

A musical jazz journey from pop to the rich cultures of India, Persia, and Arabia

Led by Tauranga-based pianist Akash Dutta, 'The Trio Sessions' is the jazz musician's latest venture into today's cosmopolitan world of jazz and its interactions with various cultures.

Joined by local musicians Tyrone Dyer (drums) and Tim Gillon (bass) the trio will play re-interpretations of well-known pop tunes by artists such as Radiohead, Paul McCartney, Muse, John Mayer, and Sting along with Akash's original compositions.

James Morrison Quartet (AUS)

Join us for an evening of jazz with multi-instrumentalist James Morrison

Performing for one NZ show only, this intimate concert is an exceptional opportunity to experience one of Australia's most talented and versatile jazz musicians.

Renowned globally as one of the finest jazz players of his generation, James Morrison is not only a trumpet virtuoso, but the complete showman. He has performed alongside the best jazz musicians of our generation and has had the privilege of performing for the President and First Lady of the United States.

Ray Brown called him 'The Genius' but Wynton Marsalis said it best: "Man, James Morrison can play!" When asked about his extraordinary career, James declared, 'This is just the warm-up!'.

Grab your family and friends and prepare to be blown away.

Russ Spiegel (USA) – Russ Spiegel Trio

Groovy, swinging, and sophisticated at the same time, versatile New York city based jazz guitarist and composer Russ Spiegel hits all the right notes.

Covering a wide variety of styles from hard-swinging modern and post-modern jazz to rock, blues, funk and Latin and more, he has been garnering rave reviews for his performances all around the world.

For his NZ performances he is joined by Mark Lockett (drums) and Umar Zakaria (bass).

Louis Baker Authentic modern soul

"infectiously groovy neo-soul" – NZ Herald

Aotearoa soul star Louis Baker crafts songs from a place of deep artistic integrity. With a powerhouse voice that's capable of a primal RnB scream or tear-inducing plea, and a love for soul, hiphop, and jazz music, Louis has gathered a loyal following that spans the world over.

Louis Baker has independently built up over 30 million Spotify streams, sells out shows in New Zealand and performs on the European festival circuit opening for international artists such as Fat Freddy's Drop, Allen Stone, Jordan Rakei and Morcheba. Nominated for prestigious music awards including the APRA Silver Scroll Award, Taite Music Prize and Aotearoa Music Awards, Baker is gathering fans and attention.

Supported by his band and backing vocalists this will be a stunner of a show.

Louis Baker – Vocals/guitar, Cory Champion – Drums,
Johnny Lawrence – Bass, James Illingworth – Keys
Kirsten Te Rito – BVs, Lisa Tomlins – BVs

Speakeasy Supper

5 course degustation with live jazz

Dust off your finest fedoras and pearls and sashay your way inside Tauranga's most exquisite 1920s venue.

Kitchen Takeover and St Amand on The Strand are set to transport you into the heart of a New York Speakeasy supper club in all its sumptuous, secretive allure.

The magical melodies of our speakeasy band will grace you with live jazz throughout the evening.

Kitchen Takeover's star chefs Shane Yardley and Will Dods, meanwhile, will serenade your senses, with a five-course degustation filled with the era's decadent flavours.

No Speakeasy would be complete without the classic concoctions of the era, with delicious cocktails flowing as freely as the secrets.

Shake it up at the Hurricane Party

Get excited, shake, shimmy and get in the swing with two great Auckland bands

Asumadu Jazz Ensemble (AJE)

Led by Ghanaian master musician and multi-instrumentalist Yaw Asumadu, who has been performing his own brand of jazz in Ghana and London, including a residency at the legendary Ronny Scott's bar and in Oren Marshalls Charming Transport Band, this new ensemble presents a fresh line up just for the festival that will have you dancing and singing along with their fusion of afro-grooves and jazz.

Filthy Junk Traders

Taking inspiration from the lawless saxophone sections of the swing age and the heavy-footed beats of hip hop producers who reimagined the dusty recordings of that era, the Filthy Junk Traders bring their finest bars of filthy jazz, funk, and hip hop to Totara St.

Get it while it's hot.
